Dear All

we hope your artists' talks series have gone very well, although I realise that some of them will continue until the end of August. It's now time for us to collect all the documentation so I would be grateful if you would forward what you have to me which should be in the form of audio/visual & hopefully transcribed material. We would like to publish some of the highlights on the NIFCA website & consider the rest for a possible publication. Looking forward to receiving material from you.
All the best Rebecca
