

Activities Voyvoda Street Meetings 2002

The Ottoman Bank Archives and Research Centre organised every month, during the academic year 2000-2001, the Voyvoda Street Meetings. On this occasion, it constituted a platform where eminent economists and historians shared their knowledge and experiences with their colleagues, students and dilettantes interested in economic history. The Voyvoda Street Meetings continued in the academic year 2001-2002. The principal theme of these meetings was "Life in the Ottoman Empire (1780-1920)". During the meetings where was treated political, economic, social and cultural life of the Ottoman Empire under an interdisciplinary approach, academicians shared their knowledge on their researches with their colleagues, students and amateurs.

Here is the programme February-June 2002 of the Voyvoda Street Meetings, which took place, in the Ottoman Bank Archives and Research Centre, in Wednesday of every month:

Christoph K. Neumann - February 20, 2002

"Consumption and Identity in the Ottoman Elites at the end of the Modern Era"

Prof. Afife Batur - March 20, 2002 "Architect Vedat Bey"

Prof. Cem Behar - April 17, 2002

"An Elder and his Quarter at the end of XIXth Century: Osman Efendi and the Kasap İlyas Quarter, 1880-1905"

Prof. Ferhunde Ozbay - May 15, 2002 "Adopted Children, Are-They Slaves or Children?"

Prof. İlber Ortaylı - June 12, 2002 "Daily Life in the Ottoman Empire"

Activites - Les Reunions de la Rue Voyvoda 2002 20 Fevrier 2002 - Christoph K. Neumann

"La Consommation et l'Identite chez les Elites Ottomanes à la Fin de l'Epoque Moderne"

20 Mars 2002 - Prof. Afife Batur "L'Architecte Vedat Bey"

17 Avril 2002 - Prof. Cem Behar

"Un Muhtar et Son Quartier à la Fin du XIXe Siecle: Osman Efendi et Kasap İlyas Mahallesi 1880-1905"

15 Mai 2002 - Prof. Ferhunde Özbay

"Les Enfants Adoptifs, Sont-Ils Esclaves ou Enfants?"

12 Juin 2002 - Prof. İlber Ortaylı

"La Vie Quotidienne dans la Societe Ottomane"