Dear Mr. Kabas:

Now that the exhibition of Contemporary Turkish Painting has come to a successful end, I want to take this opportunity to thank you again for your enthusiastic cooperation. The last exhibition of the Contemporary Turkish Painting was held at Western College in Oxford, Ohio and we were pleased with the wide and enthusiastic acceptance of the exhibited works.

Under separate cover we are sending you more of the exhibition catalogues which you might find useful. We will also inform you regarding the shipment and arrival of your works which will be within the next week or two.
