Istanbul's first Museum of Contemporary Art opens on September 21, 2001 with "Becoming a Place"

September 21 –
November 23, 2002

Hours:
Wednesday-Saturday:
12:00 – 20:00.

Proje4L -Istanbul Museum of Contemporary Art opens with its inaugural exhibition, "Becoming a Place" on September 21, 2001.

The museum is located in a 1.600 meters square annex of an office tower, Harmanci-Giz Plaza. The founder of the museum is the architect and real estate developer Dr. Can Elgiz.

Proje4L encourages experimental exhibition projects. Special attention is given to the needs of new audiences. Proje4L is conscious of the fact that contemporary art prospers only in an environment of a growing and diversified audience. It considers the museum as a mutual space, and a conduit between different communities.

The exhibition program does not discriminate between local and global, national and international art. Open to novel proposals, the program will support the development of a critical dialogue. Proje 4L will collaborate with other institutions on exhibitions and programs, and partnerships with non-art institutions and networks. It will study, document and pursue exhibitions from private and public collections. The museum will publish literature in conjunction with exhibitions, events and educational programs.
