Dear Vasif,

I am really very sorry about this cancellation as I was very keen to come to Turkey to do some research as well as see you and do the talk. But I started the Rooseum on the 1st November and I need this month to set up the research and production systems that just don't exist here. The only thing I can say is that once I've done this, it will give me new opportunities to follow up research visits to Turkey with real invitations to artists to work in Sweden as well as Scotland.

I can totally understand if your pissed off with me because of this, but I can only say when I agreed to come I didn't realise how far back the Rooseum had slipped and how quickly I'll have to turn it round. It can be done but it just needs my full attention now. Sorry

Anyway, if there is any chance to postpone the trip as far as Brit. Council are concerned then I would love to come later. If not, then I'll visit under my own steam - as they say - and if you would still show me round!

Let me know if I can help by sending something direct to the British Council explaining the situation. Believe me when I say I haven't cancelled such an agreed trip before and I wouldn't now except it such a situation as this.

All best, as ever

Charles
