Dear ?zge,

unfortunately it seems the ticket was the same price in Denmark as in Turkey!. I picked it up yesterday and they said the offer price was not valid so I paid the price of around USD900. I guess the Brit Council will pay this anyway. If you want the exact amount I can email you tomorrow with the DKK figure as the ticket is at home.

Hope this doesn't affect you in anyway. If I had come back on Saturday it was cheaper but I have to be here that evening.

Best,

Charles Esche
